Admission requirements

Information on application procedure

- Academic qualifications meeting the general requirements for admission to a University or University of Applied Sciences or professional qualifications allowing University admission as specified in §11 of the Law on Institutions of Higher Education in the State of Berlin (Berliner Hochschulgesetz - BerIHG)
- Proof of German language skills at a Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) A2 level.
- Proof of very good English language skills at Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) B2 level.

Restricted Admission

Where there are more applicants than places, programmes follow a NC (numerus clausus) procedure

Evidence of German language skills

International applicants whose native language is not German have to study German as their second foreign language as part of the programme and hence need to show basic German skills. All tests with a score equivalent to at least the level A2 (i.e. test "Start Deutsch 2" at the Goethe Institut) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages will be accepted.

The following can be accepted as an equivalent:

A minimum of 200 German language lessons at the time of application (Please note: Confirmation of enrolment in a language course or a confirmation of participation without a grade or evaluation will not be accepted as equivalent)

Proof of English language proficiency

Your English level has to be at least B2 CEFR (Common European Framework of References) or above. The required minimum scores of some of the most known English certificates can be found in the PDF-document under "Information for Applying". We accept language certificates of up to five years old. If you have studied a minimum of two semesters entirely in English, this can be accepted as equivalent (please provide proof with your application).
